The Oologist

Birds - Eggs - Nests - Taxidermy

The Oologist is the only magazine published in America devoted to the interests of those making collections of Birds, their Nests and Eggs. For thirty-seven years it has been the recognized medium for the exchange of ideas along these lines and its columns teem with advertisements of this character, solely for exchange. It is the second oldest bird journal in America and indispenasble to those engaged in either the amateur or scientific study of birds.

Subscription, fifty cents per year, with a free exchange notice. Sample copy free. Address The Oologist, Lacon, Ill.
